

Funerals/Memorials

Below are examples of some quotes that can be read as the white birds are being released. These are suggestions and can be expanded upon, combined, or changed in any way you choose:

Today we set free two white doves as we set free the soul of our dear _____ and remember his/her spouse, _____. We take comfort knowing the spirits of _____ and _____ are together in heaven.

Today we set free _____ doves. They will escort a single dove, representing the soul of our dear _____. We take comfort knowing our beloved _____ is heaven bound.
